

Dr. Phillip Lowe

Dr. Phillip Lowe completed his doctoral degree in clinical psychology (Psy.D) and MA in Theology at Fuller Theological Seminary. He studied Marital and Family Therapy (MFT), and also received his Bachelor and Master degrees in Electrical Engineering at UCLA. He was involved in family ministry, counseling adults and families at church during the past few years. He has conducted numerous workshops on marital enrichment, manhood, and sexuality at churches and conferences in the past. He ministered at Chinese Christian Church of Thousand Oaks (CCCTO) and currently engages as a guest preacher at several Southern California churches.

City and state of residence: Thousand Oaks, CA

Languages: English, Cantonese, Mandarin

Speaking topics:

- Marital Enrichment: A seminar of five major topics intended for relational enrichment and prevention of marital stress, with special attention to spirituality
- Sexuality Workshop for Parents: How to educate your children about sexuality
- 21st Century Manhood: The challenges facing men today
- Crisis Counseling in the Church: What is and how to conduct crisis intervention and counseling in your church
- Silence and Solitude Retreat
- Time Management Workshops
- Relational Building
- Personality Assessment – Knowing Yourself
- Conflict Resolution at Church
- Preparing Singles for Committed Relationships

