

Wicy Zhang

Wicy graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a B.A. in Communications where she concentrated more on photo communications. She is currently working on social media and assisting with photography, film, and ministry assistant work at Presence.

City and state of residence: Inland Empire, Ca

Language: English

Speaking topics:

- Managing Emotions
Learn how emotion, thought and behavior correlate with one another and begin to practice managing emotions through healthy expressions.
- Managing Relationships
Deepen your understanding of the importance of relationships, from making connections to maintaining and mending relationships.
Learn how to form meaningful connections, maintain and deepen existing friendships, and resolve conflicts to build lasting relationships.
- Missions start at home
Mission really begins where we are - in our home (church, living environment, the people, etc) - A brief intro about the purpose for our Healthy Dialogue Curriculum and why we believe missions start from home. Creating healthy communication within the household first will help us to understand one another from different generational perspectives as well as how to serve.

